International Talk Like A Pirate Day '09

Pirate Harbour Cruise
Saturday 19th September

*This Talk Like a Pirate Day, we be organising a charity harbour cruise to end all harbour cruises! Aboard thar good ship Svanen built 1912, we be raisin the mainsail, hostin the old Jolly Roger and settin our sights on an afternoon of right jolly pirate fun and debauchery and all for a good course. To help raise money for the Children's Cancer Institute!

WHERE & WHEN:

Saturday 19 September.

12 Noon to 3pm

Campbell Wharf, Campbell Bay, The Rocks, tis where we set sail from and then return.

PASSAGE:

Tickets be $70.00 and include a complementary drink on boarding, a fine lunch fit for an admiral along with prizes for the best-dressed pirates. As we be only taken on 80 crew or so, it be first in first served. To check out the good ship Svanen, go to www.sydneytallships.com and I wager ye be good n pleased with her.

PAYMENT:

Now to keep things all right and proper like, we be using a bank account this year. JOLLY ROGER KAYAKS have gratefully donated the use of their account facilities. There be two ways of paying either postal e.g. cheque/money order or via electronic fund transfer (EFT). What ever way you pay, be sure to email me with your payment details so I can post your tickets along with boarding instructions.

Postal: (include your name, contact details and number of tickets needed)
